

TCO Baseball Medicine Conference 2022

November 5 & 6, 2022

DISCLOSURES

It is the policy of Twin Cities Orthopedics (TCO) to ensure balance, independence, objectivity, and scientific rigor in its CME activities. To comply with the Standards for Integrity and Independence of the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCME), Twin Cities Orthopedics requires planning committee members and faculty to disclose all financial relationship they have with an ineligible company.

No members of the faculty and planning committee for this conference have indicated that they have any financial relationships to disclose related to the content of the CME activity. Faculty members have declared that they will uphold Twin Cities Orthopedics' standards regarding CME activities and that any clinical recommendations are based on the best available evidence or are consistent with generally accepted medical practice. Please indicate in the comments section of the evaluation form whether you detect any instances of bias toward products manufactured by an ineligible company.

Financial Support:

Arrowhead Medical, LLC
Neu Medical OPTP

Ineligible Company: Those whose primary business is producing, marketing, selling, reselling, or distributing healthcare products used by or on patients.

The ACCME defines "relevant financial relationships" as financial relationships in any amount occurring within the past 24 months that create a conflict of interest.
